Scripture Riddle

The following riddle was written by a woman in California, USA, in the late 1800s. The answer is one word, five letters long, and appears only four times in its various forms in the Authorized King James Bible. I have put the answer to this riddle on the following page, to challenge you, the teacher.

God made Adam out of dust,
But thought it best to make me first:
So I was made before the man,
According to God's holy plan.
My whole body God made complete,
Without arms or hands or feet.
My ways and acts did God control,
But in my body He placed no soul.
A living being I became,
And Adam gave to me a name.
Then from his presence I withdrew,
For this man Adam I never knew.

All my Maker's laws I do obey,
And from these laws I never stray.
Thousands of me go in fear,
But seldom on the earth appear.
Later, for a purpose God did see,
He placed a living soul in me.
But that soul of mine God had to claim,
And from me He took it back again.
And when this soul from me had fled,
I was the same as when first made;
Without arms, legs, feet, or soul,
I travel on from pole to pole.

My labors are from day to night,
And to men I once furnished light.
Thousands of people both young and old,
Did by my death bright lights behold.
No right or wrong can I conceive;
The Bible and its teachings I can't believe.
The fear of death doesn't trouble me;
Pure happiness I will never see.
And up in Heaven I can never go,
Nor in the grave or Hell below.
So get your Bible and read with care;
You'll find my name recorded there.

Transition Riddles

These riddles are associated with Scriptures, so that the class begins to think about the Bible.
It's important for students to begin to think before they are introduced to the lesson.
Warming up is a key part of succeeding in many activities!

Pronounced as one letter,
And written with three,
Two letters there are,
And two only in me.
I'm double, I'm single,
I'm black, blue, and gray,
I'm read from both ends,
And the same either way.

What am I?

eye

Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are good, your whole body also is full of light. But when they are bad, your body also is full of darkness. Luke 11:34

I'm light as a feather, yet the strongest man can't hold me for much more than a minute.

What am I?

breath

Everything on dry land that had the breath of life in its nostrils died. Gen 7:22

I never was, am always to be,
No one ever saw me, nor ever will,

To live and breathe on this terrestrial ball.

What am I?

tomorrow

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. Mat 6:24

Until I am measured,
I am not known.
Yet how you miss me,
When I have flown!

What am I?

time

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven: Ec 3:1

What does man love more than life?
Fear more than death or mortal strife?
What do the poor have, what the rich require,
And what contented men desire?
What does the miser spend, the spendthrift save,
And all men carry to their graves?

What?

nothing

Naked a man comes from his mother's womb, and as he comes, so he departs. He takes nothing from his labor that he can carry in his hand. Ec 5:15
